

Job Advertisement - Recreational Coordinator

Sakku's group of companies is seeking a Recreational Coordinator/Driver to work at Iqaluit Elders.

Reporting to the Director of Care, the Recreational Coordinator Specializes in developing, coordinating, and implementing a variety of recreational programs and services, tailored to resident needs and abilities, with the intent to enrich the lives of residents and create an enjoyable, relaxed, and entertaining environment in the facility, for the overall well-being of residents.

Roles & Responsibilities:

- Assists to interview and assess residents' social history, physical ability and behaviors, spiritual lifestyle, important memories and losses, family dynamics and contacts, dietary requirements, and language abilities.
- Assists with the management of the volunteer program, including orientation, motivation, and development of the volunteers.
- Plan, organize and submit for approval a monthly activity schedule offering a variety of activities, crafts, and events.

Job Requirements:

- Driver's license required, with good driving records (past three years) and a bus license would be an asset.
- Secondary education or additional education in recreation and leisure diploma, or degree/diploma in gerontology, or diploma in social work study.
- Experience in planning, organizing, and managing events.

Competition closes: Friday, August 9, 2024

- Competitive Benefits Package including Northern Allowance, Housing Allowance, Travel Benefits, RRSP, Bilingual Bonus, and Complete Health Package.
- Wages range from $40.00-$50.00 per hour, depending on experience.
- Only applicants that are selected for an interview will be contacted.
- Preference will be given to Inuit enrolled under the Nunavut Agreement and Employees who have experience working at these facilities.

If you are a self-motivated and detail-oriented individual with a passion for Our elders, we encourage you to apply for this exciting opportunity.

To apply for this position, please submit your resume and cover letter detailing your qualifications and experience to Hiring@sakku.ca

FOR ANY MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT US AT HIRING@SAKKU.CA